(Meeting Time: 09:30 / @1F Lotte Hotel Lobby)

Depart from the Conrad Hotel →

1) Deoksugung Palace

2) Myeongdong Street

→ Return to Hotel

Deoksugung Palace

• Tour duration: 60 minutes

• Deoksugung Palace is one of the royal palaces from the Joseon Dynasty located in Seoul, which is an impressive tourist attraction with its historical value and beautiful gardens.

The special feature of this palace is that it is a Western-style building built inside, a mixture of traditional and Western styles.

Lunch

• Tour duration: 80 minutes

• Korean Traditional Healthy Dish, "Samgyetang"

- Samgyetang is a traditional healthy dish made by simmering cleaned young chicken in a broth with ginseng, jujube, and glutinous rice.

- It is the custom in Korea to eat Samgyetang during hot summer days to replenish the nutrients that were lost through the sweating and physical activities.

※For vegetarians, "bibimbap" is served instead at other restaurants.

Myeongdong Street

• Tour duration: 90 minutes

• Myeong-dong is one of the primary shopping districts in Seoul and is famous for its beauty and skincare products, along with many popular Korean and international fashion brands.

The street is lined with food vendors selling Korean street food and there are a number of popular Korean restaurants in the area.
